YAB is an exciting opportunity being offered by NCADD Sacramento for students in all areas of the Sacramento community. In addition to advising NCADD on issues facing Sacramento's teens, board members will be offered a continuous variety of interesting, structured, accessible, and youth-specific short and long term projects. These opportunities will include projects that focus on issues such as the creation of a youth community resource guide, alcohol marketing to youth, effectiveness of youth alcohol prevention techniques etc.

Who should apply?
